MAKING PLANS FOR SUMMER

HORSEMEN RACING IN FLORIDA NOW LOOKING FORWARD TO NORTHERN MEETINGS.

Kentucky Circuit Likely to Be Patronized by Majority of Stables Now Quartered in the South—Many Good Horses in Temporary Retirement.

Jacksonville, Fla., February 11.—Owners of horses with mud-running proclivities are praying for rain at Monier Park. There has been a long continued dry spell and horses that do well in heavy going have had no opportunity of paying their way. With the close of the meeting little more than a month away horsemen are already talking of their plans for the coming summer. A great many of them have decided to ship here to Lexington and Louisville and confine their racing during the summer months to the Kentucky tracks. Many that heretofore raced exclusively on the metropolitan courses are talking of racing in Canada, but it is feared that the short meetings and frequent shipments on the Canadian circuit will keep away many who in former seasons raced in the Dominion.

As to where the horsemen will race next winter is a question. Just now Juarez is the only spot that is a certainty. There is talk of a new track for Havana, also of one at Charleston, and there is still a chance that relief may be had from the legislature in this state. It will be a pity if the sport fails to survive here, as racing has become a strong attraction in Jacksonville. It brings a large number of visitors here who remain throughout the entire winter and their absence would certainly be felt by the local merchants.

Tuesday next will be ladies' day and the management has arranged to make this occasion one of the most brilliant of the meeting. There will be two novelty races on that day, one for mules and another for goats. After the races every night a number of mules have been on the track and several of them have showed some speed. The novelty races that have been run here have proved a strong attraction and are exceedingly popular with the local element.

The lavers have been called upon to meet heavy losses of late. Tony Shaw has dropped about $5,000 during the last few days. E. J. Callahan quit $3,500 loser last Tuesday and Frank Tyler quit on Tuesday after losing $15,000 during the previous three days. Steve L'Hommiedue has lost his bank roll and is now operating from the ground. C. R. Ellison is still operating from the ground and is a big winner on the season.

Joe McLennan is finding it rather hard to fill the races that are offered for the better class of horses. The reason is that a majority of them are on the shelf. Just as R. D. Williams had Pretend ready for a race he pulled up lame in his "good leg" and it is doubtful if he will start in the meeting. George Ham experienced exactly the same trouble with Haubridge. Master Robert broke down in his last start. John Reardon has been fired by J. W. Schorr, and his other good horse, Aylmer, developed serious lameness. Banives, in the same stable, is also a cripple. Pantouffe is sore and nothing like the mare she was last winter. Booc Grande has gone amiss and is being rested up. Sandrian was taken sick recently. Frank Purcell has been down with an attack of fever. Carlton G. and Huck are both lame. Racquet and Besom have failed to do well all winter and are nodding in their work. Great Heavens spread a foot. Tony Bowers has been lame off and on and his trainer finds it impossible to get him up to a race. Glucose has been ailing since his last effort. Ragman has been lame for a month past, his trouble being bad knees. Friend Harry hit himself in his work and has been let up on. Antenor is down with an attack of fever. Gapean is also sick and Pharaoh was stricken with fever recently.

Countess and Sir John Johnson are both about ready for the races. "Bub" may have been going along with the former, while Sir John Johnson has been getting work for a month. The latter looks big, but he races that way. Trainer Woodford is probably pointing Sir John Johnson for the Live Oak Handicap, at six and a half furlongs, which will be run next Saturday. The horse's owner, Frank J. Nolan, is expected here next week.

The Yankee Handicap, the feature race of the card offered at Monier Park this afternoon, was overshadowed in a measure by the third race, an allowance affair at seven-eighths, contested by one of the best fields seen in action during the meeting. This race was won by Donald Macdonald in a snare-straining finish with The Nigger. There were only four starters in the Yankee Handicap, but it resulted in a splendid stretch drive between Mary Davis and Guy Fisher, in which the former lasted to win by a short head. Mary Davis was ridden by McGart and drew away into a long lead rounding the far turn, but at the finish was tiring badly. Donald Macdonald ran seven-eighths in 1:26. It was his first appearance in some weeks and he showed a good performance.

The last two races were selling affairs and both of these winners were boosted. Toison d'Or was bid up from $700 to $1,100 by Guy Gray, but was protected and bought in. Third Rail was boosted $200 by W. E. Sugars, but Hugh Penny protected the horse and bought him in at $1,000.

Jockey Gross was taken sick after the first race and was unable to fill his other engagements.

Jockey Wilson was given a week's suspension by the starter for all but his contract stable. He kept kicking Guy Fisher at the post and was responsible for the delay. Dunn was given ten days by the same official for pulling up Alden and Evia at the post in their respective races.

W. P. Austin purchased the three-year-old, Judge Monck, from G. P. Chinn last night.

It was a disastrous day for favorite followers, all six first choices being beaten. Three of the winners were second choices.

W. W. Lyles, who is one of the patrol judges here, has been engaged as associate judge for the half mile tracks on the Canadian circuits. Victor Louack, promoter of some of these tracks, will be here from Montreal on Monday.

James Milton will once more be engaged to start at Delorimier Park, Montreal, and at Quebec, having closed the contract this morning.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

R. D. Williams is said to be contemplating a trip abroad after the Jacksonville meeting.

The Onkaparinga, West Australia, Racing Club has in the last twenty-two years paid out $483,825 in stakes, $130,225 in wages and $11,135 in charity. The club gives only one day's racing each year—on Easter Monday.

Financial troubles drove G. W. (Doc) Graydon, who formerly trained in Canada for J. H. Madigan and Adam Beck, to attempt suicide recently, and he is now an inmate of a Buffalo hospital, situated. Friends in Canada have come to his rescue and have straightened out his financial affairs. Horsemen at Jacksonville are also subscribing to a fund for his benefit.

LEXINGTON STAKES WELL PATRONIZED.

Nearly Two Hundred Entries Received for Four Recently Closed Kentucky Association Events.

Lexington, Ky., February 11.—The four additional stakes closed on Wednesday of last week by the Kentucky Association for its spring meeting of eleven days, Saturday, April 29 to Thursday, May 11, received an aggregate of 191 entries, an average of practically forty-eight horses to the race, and as to quality the nominations represent the best of the racing material in the south and middle west. A nomination fee of $10 from each entrant was required, with the proviso that each starter is to pay an additional $25, and to each of the four stakes $500 is added. The money division in each is seventy per cent, to the winner, twenty per cent, to the second and ten per cent, to the third, so that the winner of the least valuable of the four events is assured of a sum in excess of $700 and the winner of the richest will draw something over $1,000.

With the rich breeders' Futurity for two-year-olds as the stellar feature and the Blue Grass Stakes, exclusively for three-year-olds, and the Camden Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, as satellites of a higher order than the four stakes just closed, the Kentucky Association will present the most attractive program it has afforded in the last quarter of a century.

Secretary G. B. Wilson, in making announcement of the entries, said that the officials of the association are much gratified with the responses of the horse owners, and expressed himself as entirely satisfied that the forthcoming spring meeting will in every respect be the greatest in the association's history. The entries for the Phoenix Hotel Handicap and the Brewers' Selling Stakes, are as follows:

Phoenix Hotel Handicap, $600 added, for three-year-olds and upward, one and one-sixteenth miles: Angelus, County Tax, Mary Davis, Antenor, Descomets, Mindinette, Any Port, Exemplar, Oracle, Bell Horse, Fox Mary, Polls, Bertis, Friend Harry, Princelike, Bonnie Kelso, Harrigan, Golden Egg, Round the World, Boola Boola, Helmet, Royal Report, Cherryola, Joe Morris, Star Blue, Colonel Hogan, Jupiter Joe, Starbottle, Colston, Kootenay, Wing Ting, Consoled, Lay-Not, Wing Ting, Countess, Maczie.

The Brewers' Selling Stakes, $600 added, for three-year-olds and upward, one mile.

Al Longfellow, Dorante, Oracle, Angelus, Elizabethan, Ozana, Antenor, Follie Levy, Parkview, Aragonese, Fox Mary, Pirate Diana, Beach Sand, Friend Harry, Prince Gal, Bell Horse, Golden Egg, Princelike, Bertis, Jack Weaver, Question Mark, Breville, Jupiter Joe, Royal Report, Bobby Boyer, King Solomon, Star Blue, Boola Boola, Kootenay, Szyzyg, Camel, Longhand, The Hague, Cohort, Cambon, The Moat, County Tax, Golden Egg, Tommy Twig, Crex, Mary Davis, Wing Ting, Descomets, Mindinette, Workbox.

The Raceland Stakes, $600 added, for two-year-olds and geldings, four and a half furlongs, drew fifty-eight entries, and the Elmendorf Stakes, $600 added, for two-year-old fillies, four and a half furlongs, attracted fifty entries.

FOLLIE LEVY BEATS ROUND THE WORLD.

El Paso, Tex., February 11.—The usual half-holiday attendance turned out at Juarez today to witness the running of a fine feature of the week, which was the Tabasco Stakes at three-quarters, which attracted one of the best fields of sprinters at the track. Round the World, on account of her easy victory the last time out, was thought to have the race at her mercy and was backed accordingly, but it seemed to be an off-day for her, as she was out-paced all the way, never being able to get to the front as usual. Follie Levy was an easy winner.

At a sale held in the paddock before the races, the following horses were sold: Lady Stalwart, J. C. Louder, $145. Quicksilver, S. Rouen, $50. Oblivion, J. Johnston, $140. Runabout, J. W. Parker, $75. Yesme, D. Morrison, $80. Edna Perry, $90, and Beatrice A., $80. D. B. Stevens. Periwinkle, J. H. Meade, $200.

The first disqualification of the season marked the running of the sixth race, when Indian Maid was set back by the stewards for interfering with Salian in the stretch. Salian was placed third.

The horses of George Wentworth arrived from Oakland this afternoon. In the shipment was the good three-year-old, Jim Baisey, a frequent winner at the California track.

The success of three favorites gave the public a little the better of the daily argument with the lavers.

Candleberry, winner of the last race, was bid up to $600 by Harry Mack, owner of Lady Elizabeth, which finished second, and was bought in.

LATONIA'S FINE STAKE ARRAY.

Cincinnati, O., February 11.—The Latonia Jockey Club announced the stakes for its spring meeting today. The Latonia Derby, carrying a value of $5,000, is the headliner. There are seven other stake events and the association will have a number of handicaps and special events during the thirty-one days meeting, varying in value from $600 to $1,000 added. While no dates have been assigned to Latonia and Louisville, it is pretty nearly a sure thing that Latonia will open June 12 and close July 15.

Besides the Derby the stakes include: Clippetta Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, five furlongs, $2,000 guaranteed.

Harold Stakes, for colts and geldings, two-year-olds, five furlongs, $2,000 guaranteed.

Cincinnati Trophy, for two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs, $3,000 guaranteed, and the Trophy Cup.

Merchants' Stakes, selling, three-year-olds and upward, one mile, $2,000 guaranteed.

Brewers' Exchange Handicap, three-year-olds and upward, six furlongs, $2,000 guaranteed.

Independence Handicap, three-year-olds and upward, 1-16 miles, $2,000 guaranteed.

Cincinnati Hotel Handicap, three-year-olds and upward, 1-18 miles, $2,000 guaranteed. The stakes close March 1.

TAMPA DISQUALIFICATIONS CONTINUE.

Tampa, Fla., February 11.-The third disqualification in as many days followed the running of the fifth race when John Marrs contributed to the interference which brought about his being placed last by the officials after he had finished second. Messenger Boy was the one to suffer most by the crowding and the John Marrs displacement enabled him to get second money, as he had finished third in the running. Today attendance was of fair proportions.

The judges did not like the ride that Jensen gave Light Knight and warned him.

Jockey A. Martin was suspended three days by the judges for rough riding.

J. J. Flannigan will return to Jacksonville tomorrow with Kitty K. winner of the opening race. Charles Godshaw's connection as presiding steward will be abolished, leaving the conduct of the racing in full charge of Judges Burke and Smith. The bookmakers had a real good day of it, the defeat of a majority of the best backed contestants permitting a big profit.

Winner - B. g. by Bannerman - Idle Days (trained by H. Penny).

Went to post at 4:29. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second and third driving. THIRD RAIL took the lead with a rush and, keeping it, was next to the rail for the entire way and, after a long drive, shook off EDWIN L. in the last sixteenth and won going away. EDWIN L. forced the pace gamely and was lapped on the winner until well into the homestretch, but succumbed when the final drive came. DIXIE KNIGHT was outrun for the first half, but moved up gamely on the outside and finished fast and wearing the leaders down. QUEEN MARGUERITE tired. SOU met with much interference. The winner, entered for $800, was bid up to $1,005 and bought in.

Overweights—Sou. 1 pound.
